Weather Conditions in Northwest and Ohio Valley Unsettled Again.

By Joseph Pritchard. EHICAGO, Aug. 18 .-- A large number of wheat shorts ran to cover Tuesday on the generally unsettled weather conditions north of the Oklahoma and Arkansas lines, but there were oply light rains in Kansas and Missouri. Those who changed their position remembered distinctly the defeats they have met during the past! month or six weeks by putting out short lines and expecting to cover and secure profits on declines, but they were disappointed because of the rains which continue to visit the harvest districts, as well as the sections where the threshing of wheat is under way. The weather man Tuesday showed rains in the southeastern part of the northwest, rains general in the west as well as downstate and in the Ohio valley, and it was raining today in many places in Nebraska, lowa, Illinois and Indiana. To make matters worse the weather promise is for unsettled conditions throughout Net gains at Chicago Tuesday were

1 1-8603-4c in wheat and the northmarkets shewed about the as were made here, There was considerable talk of export takwheat sold to go out via the Atlantic ports as well as gulf ports, but these narrowed down to 250,000 bushels in

The sales of cash wheat at Chicago were only 95,000 bushels of which 50,000 bushels were for export, It is said in cash wheat circles that available supplies of this grain. There was a strong undercurrent to the corn and net gains of 3-8@5-8 = were made. The strength was a reflection of unfavorable weather conditions, the temperature being lower and the rains consequently colder. These conditions are particularly unfavorable for corn at this season of the year. Cash sales small at 110,-

Gains of 1-8@1-2c were made in oats, mainly in sympathy with the advance in wheat. There was some buying of September late in the day were 410,000 bushels, of which 50,

Provision stocks at Chicago were construed by the trade as bearish and there was some selling of the list by packers in consequence. Cash trade was quiet, although packers were willing to shade prices.
